

EVERYTHING I NEED

©2006 by Jon Murphy

*When I remember my old self
And all the things I used to be
I marvel at the depth of love
That He would die for me*

*Though it seems for Him to be all I need
Is far too great a task
He says that He knows all my needs
Before I even ask*

Chorus

*He is the Light of the World
The Lord of Glory
The True Lamb of God
The King of Kings
And Lord of Lords
My Savior and the Word
Immanuel, the Bread of Life
Redeemer and Truth
The Alpha and Omega
He's everything I need*

*When I am weak and feeling tempted
By the cares that weigh me down
His strength is perfected
And His precious grace abounds
I am no longer chained
As a slave to my sin
By His power He has set me free
Oh, let my new life begin*

(Chorus)

*Oh, let all those who trust Him, rejoice
Let them ever sing for joy
For You defend them
Oh, let all who love Your name
Rejoice in You
For the righteous You will bless
None can deny Your holiness
So let us live by faith
And serve the One who died for all*

(Chorus)

Lord, Your everything I need

---

Some thoughts from Jon...

I have grown to love and embrace the definitive words used in scripture like all, every, none and always. A dear friend asked me the question, "What part of all do you not understand?" God uses those words for a reason. As in Philippians 4:19, "My God shall supply all your needs...." And because He knows everything I need, even before I ask Him, He is everything I need!