

PLANS

©2006 by Jon Murphy

*I have questions, so many questions
What path should I take
What move should I make
Where the peace with my decisions
That I've made*

*Lord, I plan out my days
Thinking things will always
Work out just the way that I planned
But when I leave You out
There is no doubt
That path is just sinking sand*

Chorus

*For I know the plans that I have for you
Plans for a future and a hope
You will seek Me and find Me
When you search for Me
With all of your heart
The mind of man plans his way
But the Lord directs every step
And many are the plans
In the heart of man
But the counsel of the Lord will stand*

*Lord, I know Your gate is narrow
And few will go in to be freed from their sin
And know the joy of becoming born again
But to those who seek You
All the old is made new
Their path You will always make straight
For Your word is a light
That shines so bright
As we learn on You, Lord, to wait*

(Chorus)

*Oh, to those who keep Your commands
Who seek after You every day
When Your path is theirs
Your take upon You their cares
For You are the Truth and the Way*

(Chorus)

Oh, to be in the palm of Your hand

Some thoughts from Jon...

Like any responsible person I must make plans for today, next week, next year. But it's when my plans do not fit within God's will for my life that things go awry. The best verses for the question of "what is God's will for my life" are Proverbs 3:5-6, "Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him and He will direct your paths." It's not from my own narrow, human perspective that I will see God's will for me. It's as I seek and acknowledge Him that He reveals the right path - His!
