

TASTE AND SEE

©2006 by Jon Murphy

*Oh, taste and see
That the Lord is good
And give to Him
The glory due His name
He who laid the foundations
Of the earth
Is the One who redeems us
He's one in the same*

Chorus

*So, make His praises
Be continually in your mouth
And worship the Lord in
The beauty of His holiness
We praise You for Your righteousness
Oh, how awesome are Your works
In our life
May we never cease
To fear the name of the Lord Most High*

*Oh, magnify, and exalt the Lord
For He is great and greatly to be praised
I will praise You
For You have answered me
And became my salvation
With You I am raised*

(Chorus - 2 times)

Oh, taste and see, He is good

Some thoughts from Jon...

Tasting requires me to do something. I can look at, touch and smell an apple all day, but I'll never know if I like it until I taste it. Psalm 34:8 says that the Lord is good, if I will only taste and see for myself. It also says that I am blessed and have no wants when I trust in Him and fear Him not being afraid, but having a worshipful reverence of God that compels me to honor and obey Him.